

Who to Marry

YRR Form LV-N-CLV

Figuring out who to marry is one of life's hardest questions. It can be easy to find yourself in an endless cycle of waiting to "discover God's will." That's where this worksheet comes in. Answer these simple questions and find out if he or she is your helpmate for life.

1. Are you related?

Y or N

(Note: If you live in West Michigan, this question may require some serious genealogical research, going all the way back to the Moederland.)

2. How well do your parents know his/her parents?

(Answer on a scale of 1 to 10, 1 being "She has parents?" and 10 being "They've already arranged my marriage and drawn up the papers.")

3. How reformed is he/she?———

(Fill in reformed quotient; see equation above.)

4. Where did you meet? (Multiple Choice, see below)

- A. Church lobby
- B. Youth Group
- C. A Reformed Conference where she was pass-ing out badges.
- D. The "coffee house" ministry your church runs on Tuesday evenings
- E. Calvin College

5. From how many elder mentors have you sought counsel regarding the character and “rightness” of the guy/girl in question?

(If fewer than 10, put this sheet down and start meeting with people in coffee shops . . . what are you waiting for?)

6. Is time running out?

Y or N

(i.e., are you almost 20, or older?)

Key

If you answered Y to number 1, I’m sorry, keep looking. If you answered 8 or above to number 2, and if his/her RQ is above 70, and the answer to number 5 is more than 19, and especially if you answered Y to number 6, this thing has a chance . . . as a matter of fact, for what it’s worth, Ted and Zach really like him/her.
